BIBLE SCRIPTURE for JANUARY 2019

I, yes, I alone am he who blots away your sins for my own sake

and will never think of them again.

Isaiah 43:25(TLB)

Faith Step: Ask Jesus to show you what you need to throw out so you can fully receive the new things He has planned for you this year.

Appreciation is extended from the staff at Trilby UMC for your generous Christmas gifts to each of your staff members.

Thank you and God bless you all this coming New Year of 2019.

I FOUND A BETTER WAY

It is a common custom for people to make a New Year's RESOLUTION¹ on the first day of the New Year. But far too often they quit and don't follow through with what they resolved to do.

There are many reasons (and excuses) as to why they fail. However, I believe the root cause is they are trying to do it by SELF EFFORT. They have good intentions, but they are either not truly committed or are trying to do it by themselves. Stubbornly INDEPENDENT! Like the little child who says, "I can do it myself" and then tries to dress him/herself without any assistance and gets shirts on backwards and shoes on the wrong feet!

Independent people "have a FORM of godliness,"² but won't accept God's help.

Several decades ago, I found a better way to start the New Year...not with a RESOLUTION, but with a PRAYER. I took my request to the Lord as to what I wanted to change in my life or work on for the next year.

WARNING: Be careful what you ask for because you might get it!

The 1st year I prayed for PATIENCE.³ Oh my, did He ever work me over! Everything seemed to go wrong. God revealed to me how IMPATIENT I was and flushed some of those impurities out of me.

The 2nd year I prayed to be more FLEXIBLE⁴ I was too stiff...too rigid—not PLIABLE in the Master Potter's Hands. It seemed I was thrown down on the potter's wheel and spun around-and-around—and stretched in every direction all year long.

¹ RESOLUTION: The act of resolving something; the thing determined upon; decision as to future action; a resolute quality of mind,
